THE GENERAL DATA PROTECTION REGULATION

One of the biggest changes to UK data privacy law comes into effect on 25th May 2018. The General Data Protection Regulation, also known as GDPR, means that you'll have more control over how your data is used. And it ensures that organisations protect your personal data better.

When you apply for membership we ask you to give us some of your personal details so that we can register and administer your membership. We are committed to keeping all the information we hold about you secure, private and confidential and there are no circumstances where the information is divulged to third parties.

We ask for your name (title, forename(s), and surname), date of birth, postal address and e-mail address. We need some of this information to meet our legal obligations and if you don't provide it, then we will be unable to accept your application for membership.

There are no foreseeable circumstances under which we would need to contact you at your postal address and the e-mail address is recorded to enable us to inform you of forthcoming events. Your date of birth is recorded to establish when you are entitled to senior or life membership. If you wish to opt out of email contact or have your date of birth removed from the records, then advise the Club Secretary or Treasurer and the information will be deleted.

If you have any questions on the security of your personal information, contact the Club Secretary or Treasurer.
